INFORMATION PRESENTED AND DISCUSSION HIGHLIGHTS

This informal meeting was held at the Bay County Fairgrounds livestock arena. Members present checked in with Judy Delestowicz, MSU Extension Bay County administrative assistant. Members present were able to partake in the bidder's reception, adjacent to the livestock arena. After the opening ceremonies of the 4-H livestock auction ended, Extension Council members either attended the auction or went on the planned tour. Doug and Jan Rise volunteered again this year to photograph 4-H youth with their animal(s) and the lucky, successful bidder. A great fair memory captured!

Bob Kernstock and Barb Wishowski took part in the tour of the 2007 4-H youth projects, which ended by 6 p.m. The tour consisted of livestock and horse barn exhibits, the container garden contest participants (sponsored by the Master Gardener Volunteer Program), the Bay County Emergency Services trailer and MSU Extension booth, still projects in the Canteen building. Tour guides were Judy Delestowicz and Ann Arnold.
